

Summer Internship at University of Florida (USA)

University of Florida, USA is offering 6-Week Summer internship after 4th and 6th semester to all the students of our University. So far this program is only for CSE & IT branch. The key features of the programme are:

- A Six week summer internship program for undergraduates who have completed 2 years after enrollment in undergraduate programme in Computer Science and Engineering (CSE)/ Information Technology (IT).
- Requires presence at University of Florida in Gainesville (USA).
- Students will work in a team of up to 4 on computer science and engineering software projects.
- Students participating at the end of second year may return for another internship at the end of third year.
- The minimum criteria to apply for the internship programme is to have good English communication skills, Proficiency in object-oriented programming and Current SGPA of B or better than it.