PART -I

PATTERN OF EXAMINATION/EVALUATION SYSTEMS/GRADING SYSTEMS

2. Examinations

To train the student to put in sustained and disciplined work over the entire period of study, following pattern of examination is being implemented in the university. Some important components of the examination pattern are as given in succeeding sub paras:-

(a) Theory Courses

The university will follow the semester systems and accordingly three examinations shall be held in each semester for theory courses. These shall have a total weightage of 75%; the balance 25% shall be allocated to Assignments, Quizzes, Tutorial, and Regularity in Attendance etc. by the Course Coordinator/ Teacher. Details of examinations and their weightage are as follows:-

(b) Theory Tests/Examinations

Three types of tests/examinations shall be held in each semester as specified in sub section (a) of section 1. Types of tests/examinations are as under:-

- (i) Test-1 or T-1
- (ii) Test-2 or T-2
- (iii) Test-3 or T-3

(c) Weightage of marks, duration & Syllabus for theory test/examination

Allotment of weightage of marks i.e. 75% of total as specified in sub-section (a) of section 1 & Syllabus, duration, marks for each Tests/Examination will be as under:-

Allotment of marks:

Tests/Exams	:	T-1	T-2	T-3
Percentage of marks	:	15	25	35
Duration in Hours	:	1	1 ½	2

Syllabi Coverage:

The syllabus for each test is course contents covered up to the last day of teaching before the examination.

- (d) Allotment of remaining weightage of marks i.e. 25% of total as specified in sub-section (a) of section 1.

Remaining weightage of marks i.e. 25% including 5% of attendance will be awarded by respective course coordinator in each theory course through the individual events i.e. Assignments, Tutorials, Quizzes, Regularity & Punctuality in class attendance on the basis of entire semester performance of the individual student.

- (e) Practical Courses

The evaluation of Practical / Laboratory / Sessional / Workshop work will be based on the following:-

- (i) Day to day work.
- (ii) Punctuality and Regularity.
- (iii) Quantity and Quality of work.
- (iv) Some practical tests.
- (iv) Any other component to be decided and announced by the Course Coordinator(s) concerned.
- (v) A Practical course is considered as an independent course and accordingly grades shall be applicable to the practical courses.

- (f) Evaluation weightage of the practical/ laboratory courses will be as follows:

(i)	Day to day work	70%
(a)	Attendance and discipline in laboratory	15%
(b)	Quantity & Quality of Experiments Performed, Learning laboratory skills and handling laboratory equipment, Instruments, gadgets, components, materials and software etc.	40%
(c)	Laboratory record	15%
(ii)	Mid-Semester lab-viva voce / test (P-1)	15%
(iii)	End Semester lab - viva voce / test (P-2)	15%

(g) Evaluation for Projects Courses

- (i) Project courses shall be run in the final year of B.Tech. & M.Tech. only i.e. in the pre-final semester and final semester each, under the guidance of a Supervisor appointed for individual student or a group of students, and separate evaluation will be done in each semester.
- (ii) The following evaluation scheme will be followed in each semester while evaluating and awarding grades:
- | | | | |
|-----|---|---|--|
| (a) | day to day work | - | 35% awarded by the Supervisor(s) |
| (b) | One Mid-Term Seminar-by the students on the project work | - | 15% awarded by a panel of examiners |
| (c) | One Viva-Voce
Examination between
Test T-2 and Test T-3 | - | 15 % awarded by a panel of examiners |
| (d) | Project Report | - | 15% awarded by the supervisor (s) |
| (e) | Final Viva-Voce/
Defence/ Dissertation | - | 20% awarded by a panel of three teachers including Supervisors.
In case of M.Tech. Programmes, External examiner shall form a part of the panel. |

(h) Guidelines for Monitoring and Evaluation of Projects for PG Course

- (a) The students must meet their supervisors immediately after the project is assigned to them.
- (b) The students must meet and report to their supervisors at least twice a week on appointed days and time.
- (c) The students should maintain a logbook of their day to day activity and get it signed by the supervisors twice a week during their meetings.

(i) The Project for the PG Course

- (a) The project will be split over 2 semesters of final year. The two parts must be seen in continuation.
- (b) Evaluation of projects shall be carried out separately in each semester.
- (c) The project should be in the development of new process or products, tools, techniques and conceptual research work leading to new findings. The work should be characterized by new result in design, development and implementation and should have the potential of industrial scientific acceptance.

- (d) The supervisor will provide a panel of external examiners that should consists of three experts who should not be from the university where the project report is being submitted. The Dean (Academic) will appoint one expert from this panel as the examiner. The other examiner will be the supervisor of the students. The defense will subsequently be done in the presence of the external examiner.
- (e) The student shall submit three copies of the project report as loose files to facilitate modifications that may be asked for. After the defense is completed and normally within 15 days thereafter, 3 hard bound copies shall be submitted in the prescribed format. One of these copies will be placed in the library of the University.
- (f) The project report will be submitted as per the instructions displayed on the website.

(j) Supervisors for PG Course

- (a) There can be two types of Project supervisors, Internal and External. Internal supervisors must have at least an M.Tech. degree or equivalent and must be at least in the Lecturer grade of JUET and be employees of JUET. External supervisors are not employees of JUET and belong to other industrial or academic organizations including national laboratories. They must have at least an M.Tech. degree and 5 years of relevant experience.
- (b) In the case where an external supervisor is chosen, it is necessary that a joint internal supervisor is also selected. Joint supervision may be done by more than one internal supervisor, with or without external supervisors.

(k) System of Supplementary Examination

The supplementary exams shall be held at the end of each semester. A student is entitled to appear in Supplementary Examinations only once, for a subject.

(i) Eligibility:

- (a) Students who were eligible to appear in T-3 examination and awarded 'F' grade are eligible to appear in supplementary examination.
- (b) Students not allowed to appear in T-3 examination due to poor academic performance or shortfall in attendance, by the Vice-Chancellor, will not be allowed to appear in supplementary examination. Such students will be declared failed in the semester.

(ii) Conduct

- (a) Supplementary Examinations shall be held twice in an Academic Session. For the odd semester (July – Dec.) it shall be held in December and for the Even Semester (Jan – Jun), in July. The dates shall be announced in the Academic Calendar.

- (b) The Supplementary Examination shall be of 100 marks and two hours duration for each subject.
- (c) The Supplementary Examinations will cover the entire syllabus of the semester.

(iii) Fee

- (a) As decided by the University from time to time, fee per subject shall be charged from the students for supplementary examination.

(l) System of Evaluation of semester's performance

The methods for computation of Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) & Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) and the credit based grading systems are as under:-

- (i) The Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) shall be calculated on the basis of grades obtained in all the courses, except audit courses, registered for the semester as under:-

$$SGPA = \frac{\sum_{i=1}^s C_i \times G_i}{\sum_{i=1}^s C_i}$$

Where

C_i = Credits of the registered subject

G_i = Grade point awarded to the student in the registered subject

S = Total number of registered subjects in the semester, except audit

Courses

- (ii) The Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) shall be calculated on the basis of grades obtained in all the courses, except audit courses, registered for the semester as under:-

$$CGPA = \frac{\sum_{i=1}^n C_i \times G_i}{\sum_{i=1}^n C_i}$$

Where

C_i = Credits of the registered subject

G_i = Grade point awarded to the student in the registered subject

n = Total number of registered subjects, except audit Courses in all the completed semesters

(m) Structure of Grading Systems

S.No.	Grade	Point	Description of Performance
(i)	A+	10	Outstanding
(ii)	A	9	Excellent
(iii)	B+	8	Very Good
(iv)	B	7	Good
(v)	C+	6	Average
(vi)	C	5	Below Average
(vii)	D	4	Marginal
(viii)	F	0	Very Poor/Fail
(ix)	NP	---	Audit Pass
(x)	NF	---	Audit Fail
(xi)	W	---	Withdrawal

(n) Description of Grades

A Grade

An 'A+' grade stands for outstanding achievement. The minimum marks for award of an 'A+' grade is 80%. However, individual course coordinators may set a requirement of higher marks.

B and C Grades

'B' and 'C' grades denote performance ranging from Very Good to Below Average. These are decided based on the relative performance of students.

D Grade

The 'D' grade stands for marginal performance; i.e. it is the minimum passing grade in any course. The minimum marks for award of 'D' grade are 35%.

F Grades

'F' grades denote poor and very poor performance, i.e. failing a course. 'F' grade is also awarded in case of poor attendance (see Attendance Rules). A student has to repeat all compulsory (core) courses in which he/she obtains 'F' grades, until a passing grade is obtained. For the other (elective) courses in which 'F' grades have been obtained, the student may take the same course or any other course from the same category of electives.

(o) Grading Systems for Semester Examination

- (i) Students obtaining grades A (+) to D shall be declared passed. Students failing in a subject will be awarded an F grade.
- (ii) The grades shall be decided on the aggregate of evaluation of all the components like three written tests, T-1, T-2, T-3, Assignments, Quizzes, tutorials and regularly in attendance etc.
- (iii) The Practicals shall be evaluated & graded as an independent Course
- (iv) Appearing in T-3 examination is must for obtaining successful grades in the semester examination.

- (p) In some special circumstances, computation of grading shall be as under:-
- (i) In case a student fails to appear in T-3 examination due to genuine medical or other reasons as accepted by the Vice-Chancellor, he/she may be allowed to appear in supplementary examination and be graded as per marks obtained.
 - (ii) If a student fails to appear in T-1 or T-2 due to genuine medical or other reasons as accepted by the Vice-Chancellor, he/she may be awarded pro-rata marks based on T-1/T-2 and T-3 examination.
 - (iii) In case a student fails to appear in T-1 and T-2 both, he/she will be declared failed in the semester examination.
- (q) Grading Systems for Supplementary Examination
- (i) Grades shall be determined on the basis of marks obtained by the students in the Supplementary Examination of the subject only. The maximum grade awarded for the supplementary exam shall be up to C+ (four grades comprising F, D, C and C+).
 - (ii) Those students who fail in the practical subjects are allowed to take supplementary examination. For such practical subjects the designated faculty member should ask the students concerned to carry out practical work for three days and then take viva-voce/practical test on the fourth day. The maximum grade awarded for the supplementary exam shall be up to C+ (four grades comprising F, D, C and C+). Those students who get an F grade will have to register afresh in the practical courses, whenever next available in the regular semester.
 - (iii) If a student fails in the Supplementary Examination, he/she shall have to re-register for the subject, in the immediate corresponding regular semester, where the subject is available.
 - (vii) Students getting grade 'F' due to poor attendance, are not eligible to appear in the supplementary examination.

PART -II

TERMS & CONDITIONS TO APPEAR IN THE EXAMINATION FOR REGULAR STUDENTS

3. Appearance of regular students in the examination will depend on the following terms and conditions:--
- (a) Minimum 80% attendance is required to appear in the examination of any course.
 - (b) A student who has been absent from the university for more than six weeks for any reason including medical is not eligible to appear in final examinations. He is required to repeat the semester.
 - (c) Students attendance in a subject will be computed as per total Lectures and Tutorials held in the respective semester course.
 - (d) The shortfall of attendance percentage as prescribed by the university, may be condoned by the Vice Chancellor if students' reasons are genuine, such as prolonged illness, any family casualty or any others which are genuine.

- (e) Candidates shall have to obey the academic rules & regulations.
 - (f) Candidates shall have to adhere to the campus discipline as well as all standing orders enforced by the university on them.
4. No Regular candidate will be permitted to appear in the examination of the university if he/she:-
- (a) has concealed important information from the University at the time of admission.
 - (b) has been prosecuted in any indiscipline case and so decided by the Vice-Chancellor.
 - (c) does not possess the minimum academic qualification to appear in the examination.
 - (d) does not satisfy all the provisions of this ordinance or/and any other ordinances which govern the permission to appear in the examination.
 - (e) has not fulfilled the attendance requirement.

PART -III

GENERAL RULES & REGULATIONS APPLICABLE FOR ALL CANDIDATES

5. The following Rules & Regulations with regard to examinations shall be applicable for all the candidates who are studying in the university in any mode:-
- (a) Candidates may opt for the subjects in each semester of degree course, which is being offered in the semesters of the degree examination. Candidate choosing additional subjects to study with the regular courses in the respective year, will have to take prior permission of the Dean (Academics). No permission will be give to take any subject in the respective year of the examination, which is not running.
 - (b) No candidate shall appear in more than one degree examination.
 - (c) A candidate who has passed the Bachelor's degree Part I, or Part II or the Semester-I and Semester-II examination or the previous examination for a Master's degree from another University may be admitted with the permission of the Vice Chancellor to the next higher examination of the University for the degree concerned, provided the course offered by candidate at such other University is equivalent to the course of the University for the corresponding examination.
 - (d) No person who has been expelled or rusticated from the University or has been debarred from appearing in the University examination shall be permitted for any examination during the period for which the sentence is in operation.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the ordinances relating to admission of candidates to an examination of the University, the Vice Chancellor may, in special cases in which he/she is satisfied that the delay in submitting the application for admission to an examination is not due to lack of diligence on the part of the candidate and that it would be a great hardship to the candidate if his/her application is rejected, allow an application, which is otherwise complete in all respects to be entertained with the Late Fee.

- (f) If admission/examination card has been issued in favour of a candidate, the permission given to a candidate to appear at an examination may be withdrawn if it is found that :
- (i) the admission card was issued or permission was given through mistake or the candidate was not eligible to appear in the examination.
 - (ii) any of the particulars given or document submitted by the candidate in or with the application for enrolment, admission to a College, Teaching Department or School of Studies or admission to an examination is false or incorrect.
- (g) Permission will not be given to a candidate to appear in the examination hall unless he/she produces the admission/examination or the university identity card before the Controller of Examination /Invigilator of the Examination Hall or satisfies such officers that it shall be produced. A candidate shall produce his/her admission/examination card whenever required by the Controller of Examination or the invigilator.
- (h) In addition to above, the following rules & regulations will also be obeyed by the students in the examination hall:-
- (i) In the Examination Hall the candidate shall be under the disciplinary control of the Controller of Examination /Invigilator of Examination Hall and he/she shall obey his/her instructions. In the event of the candidate disobeying the instructions of the Controller of Examination or his/her undisciplined conduct or insolent behaviour towards the Controller of Examination or any invigilator, the candidate may be excluded from the day's examination and if he/she persists in misbehaviour, he/she may be excluded from the rest of the examinations by the Controller of Examination.
 - (ii) If a candidate acts in a violent manner or uses force or makes a display of force towards the Controller of Examination or any invigilator at the Hall/examination room or in its precincts, endangering the personal safety of either of them or acts in a manner threatening the authorities in the discharge of their duties, the Controller of Examination may expel the candidate from the Hall and he/she may take police help.
 - (iii) If a candidate brings any dangerous weapon within the precincts of the examination Hall he/she may be expelled from the examination and/or handed over to the police by the Controller of Examination .
 - (iv) A candidate expelled on any of the grounds mentioned above will not be allowed to appear in the subsequent papers.
 - (v) In every case where action is taken by the Controller of Examination , a full report shall be sent to the Registrar of the University and the University Disciplinary Committee may according to the gravity of the offence, further punish a candidate by canceling his/her examination and/or debaring him/her from appearing at the examinations of the University for one or more year after giving the candidate an opportunity to show cause and considering any explanation submitted by the candidate.

- (vi) If a candidate is found guilty of using or attempting to use or having used unfair means at an examination such as copying from some book or note or from the answer of some other candidate or helping or receiving help from any other candidate or keeping with him/her in the examination hall material connected with the examination or failure of an examinee to hand over his/her answer-book to Controller of Examination /Invigilator or taking away his/her own answer-book(s) out of the examination hall or in any other manner whatsoever, the Unfair means Committee for the purpose, may cancel his/her examination and also debar him/her from appearing at the examination of the University for one or more years according to the nature of the offence.
- (vii) The University Examination committee may with approval of the Vice-Chancellor cancel the examination of a candidate and/or debar him/her from appearing at an examination of the university for one or more years, if it is discovered afterwards that the candidate was in any manner guilty of misconduct in connection with his/her examination and/or was instrumental in or had abetted the tampering of university records including the answer-books, mark-sheets, result-charts, diplomas and the like.
- (viii) The University Examination Committee may cancel the examination of a candidate and/or debar him/her from appearing at an examination of the university for one or more years, if it is discovered afterwards that the candidate had obtained admission to the examination by misrepresenting the facts or by submitting false or forged certificates/documents.
- (ix) When the University intends to award any of the aforesaid penalties under clauses as above, it shall give the candidate concerned an opportunity to show cause in writing within fifteen days of the issue of such "show-cause" letter as to why the proposed penalty may not be imposed on him/her and shall consider the explanation, if any, if filed within the specified time, before awarding the penalty.
- (x) A list of candidates so disqualified shall be circulated to all Universities in India requesting them not to admit these candidates during the period of their disqualification.
- (xi) In case of a candidate who is unable to appear in the examination due to sickness or other causes, such cases may be treated as special and condoned by the Vice-Chancellor after satisfying the genuineness of the cases. As per the gravity of the case, the remedy may also be provided by the approval of Vice-Chancellor.

PART-IV
CONDUCT OF EXAMINATION

6. To conduct the university examination in proper manner; an Examination Committee (EC) will be constituted by the Vice-Chancellor, which shall act as per rules framed for the conduct of examination:-

Examination Committee

Dean (Academic)	:	Chairman
One HOD	:	Member
One Faculty Member (From other Department)	:	Member

- (a) A Controller of Examination (CE) may be appointed as per discretion of the Vice-Chancellor as and when required.
- (b) All arrangements for the conduct of examinations to be held by the University shall be made by the CE in accordance with such directions as may be issued by the Examination Committee in consultation with the Vice Chancellor.
- (c) The CE shall prepare and duly publish a scheme for the conduct of examinations specifying the date of each examination and the last dates by which applications and fee for examinations shall be paid by the intending examinees.
- (d) The EC/CE shall determine the examination rooms, location, for the day of the examination and overall examination, and shall issue proper instructions and guidelines for the university examinations in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor, Dean and the Heads of the Department.
- (e) The EC/CE shall be personally responsible for the safe custody of question papers and the answer-books sent to him/her and shall render to the University office a complete account of used and unused question papers and answer-books.
- (f) The CE and the Examination Committee shall jointly supervise the work of invigilators and shall conduct the examination strictly, according to the instructions issued by the University.
- (g) The Head of Examination Committee shall wherever necessary, send a confidential report to the Registrar about the conduct of examination, mentioning therein the performance of the invigilators and the general behavior of the examinees. The Registrar shall prepare a Daily Report on the number of examinees attending each of the examinations, absentee numbers and such other information relating to the examinations being held at the different examination hall as may be considered necessary, alongwith this any other matter which he/she thinks fit to be brought to the notice of the Vice-Chancellor.

- (h) The Examination Committee shall have the power to expel examinees, from the examinations or the subsequent examination days, on any of the following grounds:
- (i) That the examinee created a nuisance or serious disturbance at the Examination hall.

 - (iii) If necessary, the Registrar may get police assistance.
 - (iv) Unless otherwise directed, only teachers of the university shall be appointed as Invigilators by the CE as per direction of the examination committee, provided that a teacher of the subject of the written examination at any session shall not generally be an invigilator at such session of the examination.
- (i) It shall be the duty of invigilators to ensure the correct identity of the student. For this each student will carry the university identity card issued to him.
- (j) The Registrar may on the recommendation of the Examination Committee, appoint a writer to write down dictation pertaining to answers to questions at the examination on behalf of a examinee, who is unable to write himself/herself on account of severe short sightedness or sudden illness, provided that such an amanuensis shall be a man/woman possessing qualification of at least one class examination lower than the examinee concerned.
- (k) The University may, from time to time, appoint flying squads to see that the conduct of the examination is strictly according to the rules and procedures laid down by the examination committee. In the event of the flying squads pointing out any serious breach of rules or procedure, the Vice Chancellor may take such action as may be necessary including postponement or cancellation, wholly or in part, of the examination at the hall, and if any such action is taken, a report of the action taken shall be made to the Examination Committee at its next meeting.
- (l) The Examination Committee may, with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor, cancel an examination at all hall/locations if it is satisfied that there has been a leakage of question papers or any other irregularity, which warrants such a step.
- (m) The Examination Committee may issue such general instructions in consultation with the Vice Chancellor and the Registrar for the guidance of the Examiners, Centre, Controller of Examination, Tabulators, Collators, as it considers necessary for the proper discharge of their duties.
- (n) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Examination Committee in consultation with the Academic Council, may from time to time make, alter or modify the rules and procedures about the conduct of examination.

PART-V
